

Star City Children's Council Application

The Star City Children's Council is an advisory group for The Children's Museum in Edwardsville. The Council will meet a maximum of 6 times to evaluate new exhibits and programs or to give ideas for future exhibits and programs. The group will consist of 5-10 children between the ages of 5 -12 representing communities in the area. The Children's Museum will randomly select the Council members. Members will serve a 1 year term beginning February 1, 2010. Children can serve more than one term, providing parental consent.
